OVER A SCORE JAILED

Suffragets Among Garment Workers
Seized by Police.

New York, Jan. 31.—The police under Inspector Lacey made 27 arrests in the disturbances growing out of the garment workers' strike. One of the prisoners was Elizabeth Freeman, a suffragist orator, who spent 20 days in an English jail a year ago because of her activities in connection with the militant suffrage propaganda in London.

Another of the prisoners was Lenore O'Reilly, another suffragist speaker, who, however, gave her occupation as "operator" along with the seven other women who were arrested with her outside the Masonic temple.

The charges against all the prisoners were practically the same, obstructing the sidewalk, refusing to move and shouting "scab."

After several conferences, the strike of the wrapper, kimono and petticoat workers was announced as settled, and 3,000 girls returned to work today.

TURKEY'S REPLY

Ambassadors of the Powers Meet in London to Consider It.

London, Jan. 31.—Unless something happens in the meantime to prevent it, war between Turkey and the Balkan allies will be renewed at 7 p. m. Feb. 3. There is, however, strong confidence in some quarters that, notwithstanding the denunciation of the armistice, peace will not be broken.

The ambassadors of the powers are in session in London today to consider the reply of Turkey, when they are likely to try and find means for reopening the peace negotiations.

The friends of Turkey in Europe are again privately urging her to accept the logic of the circumstances, and it is believed that before the armistice expires she will yield.

AN ATTEMPT TO AMEND FAILS

Kennedy Private Bank Measure
Passes the House With Only Two Opposing Votes—Attempt Made to Reconsider the Passage of a Short Ballot Measure—Proceedings of the General Assembly.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—After a spirited but a short fight, in which it was attempted to amend the Friebolin three-quarters verdict jury bill, raising the minimum that may return a verdict in civil cases to 10, the measure passed the senate in its original form with only two dissenting votes. Senators Broadstone of Green county and Seward of Richland voted no.

Senator T. C. Jung of Hamilton offered the amendment to make the minimum 10, and on the vote on the amendment he was supported by Senators Beckett, Broadstone, Gallagher, Lloyd and McDermott.

The two bills calling for the three-quarters verdicts in municipal courts and justice of the peace courts also were passed, with only Senator Seward voting against them.

Senator Friebolin led the fight in favor of the measures with the assertion that the adoption of the amendment to the constitution last fall authorizing the change was a mandate. Senator Cahill of Preble declared that the people are demanding such a measure.

Senator Hoppel of Cleveland introduced a measure providing that the state shall compensate persons wrongfully convicted of crime. The maximum relief is not exceed $5,000, and the action to recover may be taken by the person after a retrial, establishing his innocence, or after pardon has been granted on the ground of innocence.

Validity of Short Ballot.

Validity of the state administration's short ballot bill, making the clerk of the supreme court an appointive officer, was challenged in the house by Representative Charles A. Reid, the Republican floor leader. He moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was passed and gave the house his opinion as a lawyer that, should the bill become a law, the clerk of the Franklin county common pleas court could walk into the offices of the supreme court and take over the duties of clerk of that court. The Democrats made light of the point and tabled the motion.

No attempt was made to reconsider the passage of the bill making state food commissioner an appointive officer, though some of the farmer members discussed doing so.

The Kennedy private bank bill was passed by the house with only two opposing votes. It in effect suspends for one year the constitutional requirement that private banks be inspected. For one year they may continue to use the word "bank" if they use also the word "unincorporated." At the end of the year they must make such statement as may be required by the state superintendent of banks, who is to license private banks if he finds them solvent. He is to make annual inspections. Mr. Kennedy declared the first inspection would be in the nature of a survey of private banking conditions, this survey to be the basis of future legislation, as to capitalization and other restrictions, now imposed on incorporated banks.

Senate Backtracks.

For the second time during the present session the senate backtracked on its former action, and the Hillenkamp measure to subordinate

DEMOCRATS FAVOR THE ONE-TERM IDEA

Debate In Senate Brings Forth Important Developments.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Debate in the senate on the resolution proposing a single term of six years for the president and making the chief executive ineligible to succeed himself brought forth two important developments. The senate went on record overwhelmingly against the recall of presidents at biennial elections and President-elect Woodrow Wilson was committed by Senator James Martine of his own state to advocacy of a single term in the White House. The senate did not reach a vote on the main proposition.

Several important amendments have been proposed to the original resolution. Senator Root of New York, Republican, and Clark of Arkansas, Democrat, have introduced amendments which provide that the one-term limitation shall not apply to presidents who have served prior to March 4, 1917. This will exclude both Colonel Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson.

It will require a two-thirds vote to pass the resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution. The Democrats in the main are supporting the one-term idea, the Roosevelt men and most of the Progressives are bitterly opposed to it, and the regular Republicans are divided.

Socialist Roasts 'Em

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—J. Stitt Wilson, Socialist mayor of Berkeley and Socialist presidential candidate four years ago, declined an invitation to attend a $3 banquet of the Associated Charities of San Francisco. In his letter of declination he says: "I am not a very good Christian. I wish I were. But in the name of Christ and his hungry people, I enter my protest against the word charity being used in connection with any such function. It is time that the people with an awakened Christian conscience should cease to dine so ostentatiously with Dives while Lazarus lies hungry at the gate."

Nagel Renders Decision In Venezuelan Exile's Case.

SUSTAINS FINDING OF BOARD

Ruling Based On the Ground That Castro Deliberately Refused to Answer Pertinent Questions Put to Him In Connection With the Killing of General Paradez—Courts Exile's
Only Hope.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel decided that General Cipriano Castro must be excluded from the United States as an undesirable alien, thus sustaining the finding of the special board at Ellis Island. Unless the former president of Venezuela can now succeed in getting a United States court to overturn Secretary Nagel's decision, he will be compelled to return to France, whence he came, or to Germany.

Secretary Nagel based his decision on the ground that General Castro deliberately refused to answer pertinent questions put to him by the special board at Ellis Island in connection with the killing of General Paradez. This ruling, it was alleged, was without trial or hearing of any kind, and Castro as president was directly responsible for it.

Secretary Nagel reviews the law and says that it brings forward strongly whether an alien seeking admission to this country can be permitted to refuse to answer a question based upon apparently authentic information and directed to a distinct ground for exclusion under the law.

"If this question is answered in the affirmative," says Secretary Nagel, "then every alien is entitled to the same privilege with respect to any question an answer to which may constitute an obstacle to his admission."

In conclusion the secretary says: "In my judgment, Cipriano Castro must be excluded, and that is the decision."

George Gordon Battle, who has been active in behalf of General Castro since a day or two after the Venezuelan was sent to Ellis Island, said that an application for a writ of habeas corpus will be made. This writ, if granted, will act as a stay to the deportation of the general pending the argument of the writ.

Mexican Rebel Army Preparing to Engage the Federals.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 31.—The Mexican rebel army of between 1,000 and 1,500 men that left Guadalupe, 30 miles east of Juarez, after the breaking of peace negotiations, is surrounding Juarez at some distance east, south and southwest of the city. The federal garrison at Juarez was reinforced by the arrival of about 300 federals and a heavy gun mounted on a flatcar. General Antonio Rabago and a number of federals are coming from Chihuahua to the relief of Juarez.

FIERY SOUTHERNER STARTLES THE HOUSE

Cites Case of White Girl Who Was Forcibly Wedded to Negro.

Washington, Jan. 31.—A story in which a young white girl of 15 was forcibly wedded to a negro was told by Representative Roddenberry of Georgia in terms that startled the house.

Mr. Roddenberry, who has introduced an amendment to the constitution looking to the enactment of a national miscegenation law, fashioned after statutes effective in many southern states, suggested that if a negro married a white girl in the south people would take the matter into their own hands.

The case brought to the attention of the house by Mr. Roddenberry was that of Helen E. Hanson, "a feeble-minded white girl," who was married to George F. Thompson, a negro, 42 years old. Mr. Roddenberry said that the marriage of Thompson to the Hanson girl took place at Niles, Mich., on Jan. 13. "The certificate is signed by witnesses and underwritten by Charles Ager, a minister of the gospel," said Mr. Roddenberry. "A white minister at that, who ought to be tarred and feathered and put into exile."

THREE BULLETS PIERCE SALOON MAN'S DERBY.

New York, Jan. 31.—Joseph Sagelle, a saloon keeper, living in Brooklyn, says that if anyone living has ever had a closer call with death than he has just had he would like to hear about it. He declares that the year 1913 is the luckiest he has ever known. An unknown man with murder in his heart waylaid Sagelle outside his saloon and fired three shots at him. The first bullet passed through the brim of Sagelle's black derby, fanning his hair. The second bullet just missed, grazing his scalp, and the third also made a neat round hole in the derby. The gunman escaped.

Employers Vigorously Object.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—Employers from all sections of the state swooped down upon Governor Cox and the general assembly to enter protest against certain phases of the Green workmen's compulsory compensation act. To the labor committee of the senate they voiced those protests through chosen spokesmen. The two chief objections are the compulsory nature and the provision requiring the employer to contribute the entire amount of the state insurance fund, instead of 90 per cent, as at present.

Hears From Chairman Glass of the House Subcommittee on Banking and Currency That the Attitude of the Big Bankers Who Appeared Before the Committee Has Been One of Friendly Co-operation.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 31.—That the name of William J. Bryan is the only one that has fixed itself in his mind as a candidate for secretary of state, was admitted by President-elect Wilson.

"Has anybody been suggested for secretary of state besides Mr. Bryan?" the governor was asked.

"Oh, yes," he answered. "I can not repeat the list, but there have been at least half a dozen."

Governor Wilson said that after he has selected all the men for his cabinet he will first learn if they will accept before he announces the names.

The governor's only conference was with Representative Carter Glass, who is chairman of the house subcommittee on banking and currency.

"Mr. Glass and I," said the governor, "had a long talk about the progress of the currency hearings, and he pleased me by telling me that he thought the attitude of the big bankers who appeared before the committee was one of friendly co-operation."

The governor was told that Mr. Glass had said that one of the reforms that ought to be brought about was a change in the banknote system and such changes in the system of credits as would make it more elastic and afford the banking institutions of the country a chance to meet extraordinary conditions when they arise.

"Yes," said the governor, "bankers appear to have agreed on that and it was this very thing that I referred to in my Chicago speech. When I said that the banking system of this country stood convicted, I thought I had said what everybody knew before. Sometimes one's commonplaces startle the country. It seems that whenever I deliver a speech somebody congratulates me on an idea that I know to be as old as Aristotle. The persons who congratulate me tell me that the idea never occurred to them before. Then I feel like going off and soaking my head."

REJECT HOME RULE BILL

British Peers Do the Expected By a Vote of 326 to 67.

London, Jan. 31.—As was generally expected, the house of lords rejected the home rule bill by a vote of 326 to 67. The final debate, which was earnest and restrained, was well attended. The house was crowded throughout the discussion. The peeress' gallery was thronged with fashionably dressed women. A score of bishops, who rarely attend the sessions of the house, participated in the divisions, and the great majority of them voted against the bill.

FATHER AND MOTHER SLEEP IN ONE GRAVE

Double Funeral Services Held Over Remains of Grade Crossing Victims---Covered With Flowers, Caskets Are Placed Side By Side in the Same Grave in Bloomingburg Cemetery.

Perhaps never in the county has there been a double funeral so fraught with woe as that of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grim, held in the M. E. church of Bloomingburg Thursday afternoon at one o'clock.

The terrible tragedy, breaking up a happy home in one short moment and bringing to the family of nine children the overwhelming blow of the loss of both parents at once, hung like a pall over the church and sobs and wails rent the air. From all over the county and from remote distances people gathered to pay a farewell tribute to the dead, held in highest esteem by all who knew them, and to extend their sympathy to the heart-broken children. The church could not begin to hold the crowd.

It was a sight sad beyond words to see the two caskets, converted into beds of flowers, borne down the aisle. The family which followed was completely prostrated.

Rev. Jewett, pastor of the M. E. church and Rev. Moore, of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Rev. Jewett read the memoirs and Rev. Moore preached the sermon.

A quartet, Mrs. Quincey Kinkaid, Miss Ethel Edwards, Messrs. Wm. Jefferson and Raymond Scott furnished the music, Miss Holdren at the organ.

Many accompanied the family to the Bloomingburg cemetery for the interment. The separate coffins were lowered into a double grave and "even in death" the devoted husband and wife were not divided, that is one bit of comfort to those who mourn.

There was a perfect wealth of flowers, sent from far and near. The pallbearers for Mr. Grim were Messrs. Phil Urig, Richard Vance, John Hornbeck, Clyde Parrett, Clem Hopkins, Frank Dorn and for his wife Mesdames Emma Griffith, Jennie Hughes, J. E. Hopkins, E. L. La Follette, Will Hopkins, Pearl Eckle.

OBITUARY.

JAMES MADISON GRIMM.

James Madison Grimm, son of Alexander and Jane Grim, was born July 4th, 1857, near New Holland, and passed to rest Jan. 28, 1913, aged 55 years, 6 months and 24 days. Many hearts are bowed in grief because of his untimely death, not only sons, daughters, brothers and sisters, but staunch friends who knew and appreciated the many sterling qualities that made him beloved by his family and honored and respected by his friends. A citizen has gone from our midst whose daily life emphasized industry, honesty, prudence and love of home, qualities that go to make the man. As a Knight of Pythias he illustrated in his daily life those principles upon which the order is founded.

SARAH ALICE GRIM.

Sarah Alice Grim, daughter of Edwin and Sarah Beale, was born August 20th, 1854, near Mt. Sterling, Ohio, and departed this life Jan. 28, 1913, aged 58 years, 5 months and 8 days.

Another mother has passed beyond the attentions of her children. The smile of a mother's face has enticed many into right paths, and for fear of bringing a tear into her eye, has called many a young man from evil ways. There is no mother in the world like our own mother. She was a good woman who labored hard to make home the happiest place in the world for her husband and children; but the "Gates of Life" were suddenly lifted and mother passed into the "Fields of Light", leaving children and all the endearments of home. She never was too busy to listen to the call of the needy and distressed—never too busy to go to the bedside of the sick and dying, her sympathetic nature making her a veritable "angel of mercy."

They were married Jan. 2d, 1879, and to this union were born ten children: Ona, Worley, Edwin, Wilson, Alexander, Lulu Jane, Sarah Marjorie, Mary, Cordelia Maebelle, James Madison and Martha Alice, who survive them; and a son, Roy, who died in infancy. Their married life was one of peace and pleasantness—their devotion to each other being often commented upon, remaining as they did "sweethearts" till death. They united with the Methodist church at White Oak, some 20 years ago, under the pastorate of Rev. J. M. Stroup and their daily life exemplified the teachings of the Divine master.

Mr. Grim is survived by brothers Charles A. and E. L. Grim and sisters, Anna Recob and Laura Grim.

Mrs. Grim leaves one brother, Wilson Beale, and two sisters, Mary Elizabeth Douglas and Jane Tracey.

Mourn not the dead, who calmly lie, By God's own hand, composed to rest;

For hark! A voice from yonder sky Proclaims them blest—supremely blest.

With them the toil and strife are o'er;

Their labors end, their sorrows cease,

For they have gained the blissful shore Where dwells serene, eternal peace.

Contest Will Of Mrs. Bostwick

The suit of Mrs. Ida Hulse Rife, Mrs. Mary Hulse Hays and George W. Alkire against the trustees of Darby township to break the will of Cynthia A. Bostwick, of Darby township, who died September 1, 1909, is being heard before Judge Clarence Curtin and a jury at Circleville.

Four years ago Mrs. Bostwick died leaving a will dated October 17, 1894, in which she left a farm valued at $10,000 and personal property valued at $1500, to the trustees of Darby township for the use of indigent and aged women of that township to be known as the Cynthia A. Bostwick home. Women over 50 years without actual means of support could become inmates of the home.

Mrs. Hulse and Mrs. Rife are nieces and Mr. Alkire is a brother. They contend that the testator was mentally incapable of writing or dictating a will.

CUT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

W. H. Chapman, Winnebago, Neb., tells how he did it. "My two children had a very bad cough and the doctor's medicines did them no good. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and before it was all used the children were free and cured of their cough. I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." A mean stuffy cold, with hoarse wheezy breathing is just the kind that runs into bronchitis or pneumonia. Don't trifle with such serious conditions but take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. Contains no opiates. Blackmer & Tanquary. Adv.

STATE G. A. R. OFFICERS VISIT THE CITY TODAY

Department Commander C. W. Blodgett and Three Other State G. A. R. Officials Make Preliminary Arrangements for the Encampment in June.

Four members of the State G. A. R. officials, Department Commander, Rev. C. W. Blodgett, of Cincinnati; Adjutant General W. S. Matthews, of Columbus; Chief of Staff J. Cory Wynans, of Toledo, and Chaplain D. S. Ferguson, of Troy, visited this city Friday, looking over the various accommodations here, and making preliminary plans for the State Encampment of the Ohio G. A. R. which will be held here next June during the week of June 14th.

A committee met the officers and accompanied them about the city, and the Empire Opera House was decided upon as the place where the various meetings of the G. A. R. will be held.

Department Commander Blodgett and the other officers expressed themselves as being very well pleased with conditions here, and has planned another meeting here some time early in March, when some 25 to 30 officers of the G. A. R. and auxiliaries will make definite plans for the big gathering in June.

Quite a number of business men dined with the officers at the Cherry at the noon hour Friday, where Mine Host Griffith had prepared a splendid dinner.

Within a short time the organization to make arrangements incident to the encampment, will be completed, and the work will be taken up and carried out along plans that will insure the success of the big event which will attract tens of thousands to this city.

Snake Story Is a Big One

This is a little early to tell snake stories, but when they really occur they should not be eschewed. John Stevens, southwest of town, was sauntering in the neighborhood of the Levi Smith bridge, on the Paintersville road, and before he had finished his diversion he had killed a snake. He didn't quit at this. There was something else to do. He hurried at once to the house and procured a yard stick with the inches and figures plainly marked on it, and he measured the reptile. It took two laps and a third. This was end-to-end measurement. Then he measured from tail to head and again from head to tail, to be certain, for it was sure to be told in Gath and vicinity, and all were identical—just seven feet. It has not come to us whether this was the gentleman or the lady snake, but John is campaigning for the other, and if he overtakes it there will be another tragedy, regardless of sex.—Greene County Journal.

IN SOCIETY

A notably brilliant society affair was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Werter Shoop and Mr. and Mrs. J. Madison Willis Thursday night. Everything that lavish hospitality, the skill of florist and caterers and the charm of music could contribute to their aid and the pretty rooms glowed with the radiant colors of beautiful gowns, thrown into relief by the conventional black of the attendant men.

The two homes which adjoin in one of the handsomest double houses of the town, were both thrown into use for the accommodation of a throng of guests between the hours of seven and eleven.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoop and Mr. and Mrs. Willis received in the reception room of the Shoop residence, where yellow and white snap dragons were in effective harmony with the mural decorations and draperies, and white woodwork. Mrs. Shoop was charming in a handsome gown of black charmeuse, with relief of white Venetian lace and pale blue satin.

Mrs. Willis was looking exceedingly pretty in black satin Duchesse, with wide hand-embroidered bands and corsage bouquet of American Beauty buds.

Unbonnetted and assisting in becoming evening toilettes were Mesdames Scott Hopkins, Virginia Willis, Austin Hopkins, R. C. Peddicord, A. M. Bush, D. S. Craig and Misses Bess Shoop, Gretchen and Doris Willis.

Greatly enhancing the pleasure of the reception were the strains of exquisite music. Messrs. Horstman and Keelsley playing a wonderfully beautiful program of violin and piano music all through the evening.

An elaborate collation was served in the dining room, where a white and green color scheme was artistically employed. A superb basket of white roses and tulips formed the center embellishment of the table.

The Willis side of the house had been converted into a cosy "smoker" which met with the thorough approval of the masculine guests. Immense jardineres of crimson roses and a general air of comfort added to the attractions of the "smoker".

Among the guest were Mrs. James McGuire, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Robert Palmer and daughter, Miss Anne, of Cincinnati; Miss Bess Prine, of Ashabula; Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Stewart

PLAN TO ELIMINATE DANGEROUS CROSSINGS

It has been suggested by residents of the Haines Crossing neighborhood, where the fatal accident occurred Tuesday evening, when the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Grim were snuffed out in a twinkling, that the Bloomingburg and White Oak pike be changed so that it would eliminate both of the railroad crossings at Haines.

At present the road makes two sharp bends, crossing the B. & O. railroad twice within a short distance, and the plan of changing the course of the road and making it straight, is being agitated. In straightening out the road at that point the road would parallel the B. & O. on the west side, and be some 100 yards from the track.

The road could be straightened at a moderate cost, it is believed, and two dangerous points eliminated, while the road would be shortened by a quarter of a mile.

Whether the plan will bear fruit remains to be seen.

To Begin Work Middle of Month

G. N. Clapp, manager of the Washington Gas & Electric Company, has announced that work on the new line to Leesburg and in Leesburg will commence about the middle of February, and pushed to early completion so that Leesburg will be lighted by "juice" from the local power house within the next two months.

Some delay has resulted in commencing the work, owing to certain provisions of the new law relating to franchises, and Mr. Clapp states that at present indications are that work will commence at the above mentioned time, providing the weather will permit.

"LO THE POOR INDIAN."

"Jim" Thorpe, the Sac Indian youth, who won the championship in all the athletic events in which he was a contestor at the International meeting at Stockholm, has had his numerous honors taken away from him by decree of the amateur sport authorities.

The honors won so decisively by the Indian on the fields of contest and which he enjoyed with all the savage intensity of a nature which civilization can never entirely eradicate, were in contests for amateur athletes, open to all the world. Thorpe was chosen to represent his school, Carlisle, and his feats startled the world.

Honors, medals and trophies were literally showered upon him. Indian like he accepted all stoically.

Now all his honors, all his medals and his trophies have been taken away from him, because a few years ago Thorpe played ball in a little old "bush league" way down in the south and accepted money for his services.

Thorpe didn't stop to think of the few base ball games he had played as a mere boy before he entered college, when he was chosen to represent his college at Stockholm, Sweden. It was such a little thing that he forgot all about it.

Now when his honors, fairly won, are snatched from him by the laws of the pale face athletic association he accepts the degree with the same stoicism which marked his manner when he was hailed the greatest athlete of this or any other time.

It is argued that under the rules of the game the decision is right.

But the laws of the association can never take away from this Indian the honor which the world will give him.

The evidence of the associations' appreciation can be torn away from him but the people of the world will continue to hail him as the most wonderful of all athletes.

It is pathetic but true that white men's laws and rules have always worked, from his standpoint, injustice to the Indian. So universally true is this that the Indian expects nothing at the hands of the white man and generally gets just what he expects.

It is only another case of Poor Lo. The question naturally arises where were these wise Willy boys who lay so much stress on the rules of the amateur athletic game when they allowed "Jim" Thorpe to enter the game.

The fair-minded people of the world would have accepted the harsh decree against Thorpe, literally just though it may be, if it had been announced long ago and the Indian barred from participation in the great contests, in much better spirit than they do now since he has demonstrated his prowess so conclusively.

Fair minded public opinion will never affirm that decree against Thorpe. The public will hail him as the champion of all time.

The issuing of the order formally depriving Thorpe of his honors at this time is too pronouncedly tainted with the envy and jealousy of some defeated contestor to appeal to fair-minded people who believe that even the American Indian is entitled to fair play on the Athletic field.

Thorpe won his laurels in battle and no rules of the game can make him other than the champion.

Poetry For Today

AT THE LAST.

Will the time ever come, I wonder
When I shall be glad to know That my hands will be folded under
The next white fall of the snow.
To know that when next the clover
Woeth the wandering bee,
Its crimson tide will drift over
All that is left of me?

Will I ever grow tired of living
And long to go to my rest,
With a cool and fragrant lily
Asleep on my silent breast?
Will my eyes grow weary of seeing,
As the hours pass one by one Till I long for the hush and the darkness,
As I never longed for the sun?

God knoweth! Sometimes it may be,
I shall smile to hear you say:
"Dear heart, she will not waken
At the dawn of another day!"
And sometime, love, it may be,
I shall whisper under my breath:
"The happiest hour of my life, dear,
Is this—the hour of my death."

THAT TIRED FEELING.

Suggests Grandmother's Remedy.

It's true, the season, is here with its sudden changes, and the old idea that we need a blood medicine is not without reason. Too much heavy food has caused a torpid liver, sluggish blood, and a weak, tired out feeling.

Sulphur, cream of tartar and molasses was grandmother's remedy but that has long ago been displaced by Vinol, a combination of the two most world famed tonics, namely, the medicinal curative elements of the cods' liver without oil, and iron for the blood.

Vinol builds you up, makes you eat more and digest better, makes your blood rich and pure—puts healthy color in your cheeks.

P. O. Barker, of Bowen's Mill, Ga., says: "When I was badly run down last spring I took Vinol in an effort to regain my health and strength and it did not disappoint me. It made me feel as well as ever."

We guarantee Vinol to satisfy you and refund your money if it does not.

SAVED BY TINCANS

Three Companies of Cavalry Have Close Call in Land of the Moros.
Washington, Jan. 31.—Home made
"burglar alarm" formed of bunches of tin cans tied to a barbed wire fence was all that saved three companies of the Eighth United States
cavalry from being slaughtered recently by the Moros, according to war department dispatches. Before the men retired the sentries on duty in camp threw a string of tin cans over a barb wire fence around the encampment.

Shortly after midnight a band of about 100 Moros crept through the underbrush and were unseen by the sentinels until the jangling of the cans gave notice of their approach. A furious battle ensued in which the Americans beat off the natives with difficulty, losing one man and having five severely wounded.

WITH MILLER AT HEAD

Amalgamation of Canal and State Highway Departments Planned.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—State Superintendent of Public Works J. L.
Miller succeeded as chief engineer of public works James Marker, who was appointed state highway commissioner. It is now planned to have Superintendent Miller take over the duties of state highway commissioner and have general charge both of the canal system and road construction.

Senator Dollison of Hocking conceived the idea, which was adopted by the senate committee on public works, of which he is a member. Senator Dollison broached it to Governor Cox, who said he favored the general policy of consolidating kindred departments and reducing expenses. On his invitation the senate committee will confer with the governor regarding the details of the plan.

Princess theater, Chicago, and in a prominent cafe. The music is by Jo-lyrics are by Hough and Adams.

Pocketbook of the Wife
Our Most Serious
Problem

By JAMES J. HILL, Railroad Builder of the Northwest

IN the growth of the American republic we have regarded the tariff as of serious importance. We have political questions which seriously disturb business situations.

BUT THERE IS NOTHING MORE IMPORTANT IN THIS NATION OR THE LIFE OF ANY OTHER NATION THAN THE POK-ETBOOK OF THE WIFE.

We do not produce as much as we might, BECAUSE MEN AND WOMEN ARE LAZY WITH FARM LAND and do not take the best advantage of their opportunity. If they did beef would be cheaper, flour much lower in price and the green vegetable supply far greater than at the present time.

Yet there is another point to be considered, a point which I have considered for more than forty years in developing a railway system, and that is how wisely or how ignorantly the woman of the farm, the wife, HANDLES THE POCKETBOOK which is under her control.

The original question of social economics which we have to consider at the present time is not the tariff or the finances of one of the richest governments in the world, but THE POCKETBOOK OF THE WIFE. I emphatically state that I do not mean the pocketbook of the husband, the earning factor of the family, but the pocketbook of the wife, who has THE HOME AND THE CHILDREN UNDER HER CONTROL.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pimples will vanish after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Nothing ever cleansed the blood, the bowels and the liver like Olive Tablets.

Olive Tablets are the only successful substitute for calomel—they oil the bowels; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Olive Tablets do all that calomel does and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are made of pure vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Try them. Take one nightly for a week. Then look at yourself in the glass and see how you feel. 100 and 25c per box.

TOO MUCH PAVING MAY CAUSE BAKER TO WITHDRAW CARS

Owner of Springfield & Washington Electric Road Issues Ultimatum to Springfielders.

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED
WOULD COST HIM $30,000

Will Not Abandon Road as Long as Burden Is Not Placed Upon Him—Talk of Extending the Road to Jeffersonville Is Latest in Springfield.

The following important information relating to the Baker Traction line, appeared in Friday's Springfield Sun:

"According to information from South Charleston last evening, Geo. W. Baker, of Washington C. H., manager of the Springfield and Washington Traction line, is considering the abandonment of the line, and the sale of the rolling stock and rails and other equipment.

"The reason assigned for this is that the efforts of the company to dispose of the part of the $240,000 bond issue, which it was desired to sell in Washington C. H., have failed, only $14,000 having been subscribed. Springfield raised $100,000 to meet the proposition of Mr. Baker, $85,000 having been subscribed by Springfield banks, and $15,000 by E. S. Kelly.

"Mr. Baker, according to the information from South Charleston, recently said that $15,000 would have to be spent in this city during the coming year, to keep up the company's share of the improvements required along the right of way, by council, and that rather than spend this amount, the company would abandon the road."

When asked about the above article Mr. Baker stated that over one mile of paving on streets occupied by this line, was contemplated, and that if the improvement was carried out it would mean a cost of some $25,000 to $30,000 to him, and that inasmuch as he deemed about three-quarters of a mile of the paving unnecessary, he had decided that if the paving was done, he would abandon the road in Springfield, and that he was now awaiting the decision of those back of the contemplated improvement.

Several thousand dollars will be required to pay for paving already under contract along the road.

Some of the shrewd business men of Springfield are now back of a plan to assist in building the road to Jeffersonville, that all of the business along the road may be turned toward Springfield merchants.

Mr. Baker said it was possible that such a move may be made.

New Banking Establishment

The accompanying article was contributed by a reader of The Herald who has the uplift of mankind at heart:

It is really gratifying to note the splendid condition of our banks in Fayette county, the amounts running in thousands of dollars, deposited, loaned and still remaining to accrue interest for its owners.

There is safety and satisfaction in having good sound banking institutions.

Fayette county has no more valuable asset than her boys and young men upon whose futures hang the fate of home and nation.

When you began your savings account, you possibly started with a dollar. It grew and now you own a good bank account.

Did ever a drunkard, gambler or roustabout start out to become such? Did ever a strong healthy boy start out with his goal in a penal institution?

Not much! It all came to them through neglect, carelessness, and by forgetting to watch the little things in life. It's an easy matter to go out with the boys. It's easier to learn to smoke and swear in that crowd after many nights and on it goes.

Every day something new is learned, and little by little the mortgage on character grows, and by and by the devil forecloses. You can then hear friends say: "If he hadn't gotten in with that crowd. It's too bad he didn't pick out some good companions for himself and a wholesome place to spend his spare time."

There is an institution in Washington C. H. known as the Young Men's Christian Association that does a banking business, by conserving and properly directing the saving of manhood and its energies, and pays tremendous dividends in character. It's well worth your consideration, and if you who read, be you man or boy, we add, it will pay you to join.

Small Child Badly Afflicted

The five-year-old daughter of Mrs. Josie Conway, of near Milledgeville, is very critically ill with only one chance in a thousand of recovering from a combined attack of the whooping cough, pneumonia and appendicitis.

The child has been ill for several days, and death is expected at any time owing to the seriousness of the complications.

Oft Married Oft Divorced

The marriage Wednesday, of Gertrude Coin, 43, to Jesse Gray, 30, brings to light the fact that the bride has been four times previously married, and four times divorced, Wednesday making the fifth time she has ventured out upon the matrimonial sea.

As Gertrude Creamer she became the wife of James Coin, and was divorced from him. Later she married Coin, and was again divorced from him, marrying J. F. Thompson, from whom she secured a divorce and later remarried only to again sue for divorce and secure it.

She Knows that for Croup, Colds, Pneumonia, there is nothing better. Gowan's is external; it contains no dangerous drugs—it is applied simply by rubbing on—and results are marvelous. Physicians recommend Gowan's, and all who have used Gowan's keep it in the home.

I have been in the retail drug business for twenty-five years, during which time I have sold as well as used, quite a lot of different medicines. I must say, however, that Gowan's Preparation is the best remedy I have ever used or sold for the use for which it is recommended. I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to recommend it.

THE HERALD NEWS 40 YEARS AGO

February 22.

New Firm:—General S. B. Yeoman has purchased an interest in the popular drug store in this place, owned by Dr. J. W. Cleaveland and the name of the firm hereafter is to be Cleaveland and Yeoman.

Mr. John McLean, of this place, has been appointed deputy collector for the purpose of collecting government revenue in this county.

Among those of our merchants who have gone east to purchase heavy stocks of spring goods are Dan Wendel, H. Robinson, F. L. Nitterhouse and A. Hamilton. Rie Parvin is just home from a trip to Cincinnati with a fine line of fancy cassimeres, cloths, vestings, etc., which he has on display at his merchants tailoring establishment on Main St.

Our subscribers at White Oak, Waterloo and Mt. Sterling failed to get their papers last week. Reason—the mail carrier on the route between here and Columbus, failed to make his regular trip. The contract for carrying the mail between this place and Columbus by way of Bloomingburg, White Oak, Waterloo, Mt. Sterling, etc., requires that the mail be carried three times a week, but last week no mail went out from here or was received after Monday. We know the roads have been bad and the streams high, but with proper energy the mail can be carried at all times and it should be.

Ministers Want Shorter Hours

Over in Xenia the ministers have been trying to secure an earlier closing of the stores of that place on Saturday night, so the clerks may arise early enough the next morning to attend church services.

The ministers, who have not yet been successful in bringing about an earlier closing, argue that by the time the weary clerks reach home and take a plunge in the bath, it is past midnight, and the sleepy clerks fail to arouse when the notes of the church bell peal forth on the Sabbath morning air.

SLIDES IN CULEBRA CUT

Million Cubic Yards of Earth and Rock Cover Railroad Tracks.

Washington, Jan. 31. — Further movements of the slides in the banks of Culebra cut, Panama canal, was reported to the isthmian canal commission here. Material to the amount of 1,000,000 cubic yards has been or will be thrown into the cut as a result of this latest activity of the slides.

Between 300,000 and 400,000 cubic yards of earth moved into the cut at Curachaca, covering five railroad tracks in the cut at that point, leaving only one open. Another slide occurred just south of Gold Hill, and it is expected that 500,000 cubic yards of earth and rock will have been precipitated into the cut before the slide is completed.

The latest slide at Curachaca has also weakened the bank at Purple Hill, and it is expected there will be further sliding at that point in the near future.

The Janitor's Question.

Holiday week is the period of the year when the field men of the various bureaus go to Washington to get acquainted with their families and interview the bureau chiefs. One of the reclamation experts has spent the year on the new Salt River project in the hottest part of Arizona. He was indulging in some of the big talk of the West in the presence of the Irish janitor of the building.

"Why," said he, "down in the Salt River region you'll find the hottest spot in the world. Last summer we had 117 degrees in the shade for two weeks."

Everybody drew a deep breath except the janitor.

"Well, Mr. Davis," he exclaimed,
"yez didn't have to stay in the shade
all the time, did ye?"

HARD FOOT CALLOUSES REMOVED QUICKLY.

Anything on your feet that shouldn't be there—whether corns, callouses or sore lumps—they can all be removed in short order by Putnam's Corn Extractor.
Think of the pain you are saved when that sore
corn goes. It is foolish to experiment with untried remedies—better
use Putnam's Extractor and the work will be done quickly and without pain. Putnam's Extractor costs 25c per bottle, sold and recommended by druggists and Blackmer & Tanquary.

mortgages to judgments for labor claims, personal injuries and freight losses, which passed that body by a large majority two days before, was reconsidered and referred to the judiciary committee, where it no doubt will be doomed to oblivion. Senator Hillenkamp, however, will fight for the measure.

The Barthelmeh bill, a copy of the first bill signed by Governor Sulzer of New York, making it a misdemeanor for an intoxicated person to drive an automobile, was passed by the house.

Representative Bigelow of Hamilton told the house that $500,000 had been saved the state by the patriotism of newspaper publishers in advertising the constitutional amendments
at half the legal rate. His bill appropriating $62,890 for advertising was passed unanimously, as was the Feldinger bill making it a misdemeanor to make an untrue or deceptive statement in an advertisement.

The house passed the Brennan bills making election day a half holiday and for closing the polls everywhere
at 5:30 p. m.; the Shanley bill requiring payment of $2 a meeting to members of village and special district school boards; the Horwitz bill transferring to the probate judge the duties of the county blind relief commissioners; the McCormick bill for burial of paupers dying in state institutions by the board of administration and charging the cost to commissioners of the county in which the pauper lived.

A 70 Mile Fox Chase.

"I notice a good deal of comment
on a sixty mile two day fox hunt
in Pennsylvania," remarked a fox hunter, "which reminds me that we covered more than seventy miles here recently in a single day, and what is more, we got the fox. "First of all we rode not less than fifteen miles and back thirty miles. In the workout we covered not less than twelve miles, and in the four hour chase, red hot every minute, surely thirty miles more, a total of not less than seventy-two miles. "Personally I believe it to be one of the most remarkable runs on record."—Raleigh Times.

SURVEYOR OF PORT THINKS HE HAS IT

CONSPIRACY UNCOVERED

Smuggling and Sale of Opium and Cocaine On Unprecedented Scale.

New York, Jan. 31.—General Nelson H. Henry, surveyor of the port, believes that he has uncovered a conspiracy for the smuggling and sale of opium and illicit trading in cocaine on an unprecedented scale, that may involve several drug firms, and that caused the arrest of Dr. Abram Glickstein, who was held in $5,000 bail for examination before United States Commissioner Shields. The doctor was referred to by the surveyor as the chief of the conspirators. His brother, Elias Glickstein; Nathan Ulrich and Isador Goldstein, were also arrested and locked up. The surveyor said the ramifications of the conspiracy were so numerous that it might be several days before his sleuths got down to the bottom of it.
Thousands of dollars had been invested by the men interested in the smuggling and sale of the opium.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Unna, of Germany, and
Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. Then, it is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness
may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Rexall
"93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Unna, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else can to remove dandruff and stop falling hair; and if any human agency can promote a new growth
of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it.
We will pay for a month's treatment of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. You more request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes: 50c
